UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. JODYMARIE ALAYSA VASQUEZ, Defendant.	No. 07CR3302-H I N F O R M A T I O N 18 U.S.C. 1341: Mail Fraud

THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CHARGES THAT:

In or about November 2006, within the Southern District of California, defendant, JODYMARIE ALAYSA VASQUEZ, did devise and intend to devise a material scheme to defraud, and to obtain money and property of the United States Navy by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises. On or about November 21, 2006, for purposes of executing such scheme and artifice and attempting so to do, defendant JODYMARIE ALAYSA VASQUEZ, caused to be placed in a post office and authorized depository for mail matter, a matter and thing whatever to be sent and delivered by the Postal Service, to wit, an envelope addressed to the Explorer Insurance Company containing a letter purporting to waive the U.S. Navy's Medical Care Recovery Act claim against Explorer Insurance Company and a check that had been previously issued by Explorer Insurance Company payable to the U.S. government in the amount of $6000.00.
